

Fresh produce supplier celebrates centenary

ON Thursday, February 26, Fine Bros (Pty) Ltd celebrated its 100th birthday at Cape Town Market. Present were 500 guests from a diverse background within the fresh produce industry.

The evening was a great success and Fine Bros is ready for the next 100 years of business. Guest speakers for the evening were Ian Lourens (Chairman of Lebombo Growers), John Holmes (Business development director of CFI), Dr Anwar Nagia (Chairman of CFI) and Quintus Visser (entrepreneur and friend of the Norman family).

The evening was well orchestrated by MC Ryan O' Connor of KFM. He had the audience captivated with his well-known charm and sense of humour.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY MICHAEL WADSWORTH - 082 444 6699

DOMIEN VAN BUYNDER and Kade Lotter

DAVE HOGG, Trevor Michaloux, Paul Rauch, Val Ricardi, Philipp, Andrew Hepburn and partners

HARRY NORMAN and Mannie Patel

TONY SANTOS, Harry Norman and Peter Lerm

ANDRE AND SANETTE BOSHOFF with Christa and Kade Lotter

YUSUF MOOSA, Yunis Adams, Mohamed Moosa, Harry Norman, Munier Moosa and Tony Santos.

KADE LOTTER and Neville Lotter (back row) with Christa Lotter, Mrs Berg and Betty Lotter (front row)

MR AND MRS HARON PATEL, Harry Norman and Dr and Mrs Anwar Nagia

IAN LOURENS and Roy Fine

RONNIE LEVINSOHN, Harry Norman and Zeus Andrade

KADE LOTTER, Domien van Buynder, Olga Lourens, Harry Norman, Christel Botha, Xander Botha and Grant Norman (back row) with Marielka Bouwer, Corne Bouwer, Ian Lourens and Cindy McFarlane (front row)

RYAN NORMAN, John Laurie, Harry Norman and Grant Norman (back row) with Simone Fichtl, Abbey Norman, Lynette Norman and Carla Bonini (front row)

HARRY NORMAN, Helene Meyer and Roy Fine

WILLIAM VAN NIEKERK, Mark van Driel and Mr van Driel Senior

GERARD BASSON, Harry and Lynette Norman, John Holmes and Michael Cordes